

Best Dutch Language Coaching Service for Expats & Professionals 2026

Learning a language is an incredibly rewarding experience, and it can have an awful lot of benefits for a person's career, too. Although Dutch may not be the first language many people think of when it comes to this prospect, for those who have recently moved to the Netherlands, have lived in the country for a while but seek a better understanding of the language, or for whom Dutch is not their native language, it can be a really worthwhile investment. There to support all of these groups is Effie Alexiadou, the woman at the helm of the award-winning coaching business Learn2speak Dutch.

In 2012, Effie Alexiadou moved to the Netherlands with her husband. The move has been everything she hoped and then some, but one thing she has come to believe is that people looking to follow in her footsteps (or who have already made the move) will only truly feel at home here if they have a good command of the Dutch language. This is why she offers simple, accessible Dutch courses and resources for non-native speakers.

Effie explained: "As an expat myself, I understand first-hand the challenges of learning Dutch and adapting to life in a new country. After learning the language and becoming a certified Dutch teacher, I developed a teaching approach that helps students learn Dutch in a way that is practical, structured, and time-efficient." Students also get a Dutch grammar book that Effie herself has written in clear and accessible language for both English- and Greek-speaking learners, ensuring the utmost clarity and ease.

The purpose of Learn2speak Dutch's language courses are first of all help people feel at home in the Netherlands as quickly as possible, but also to support their development in a professional sense, increasing their chances of success in the Dutch labour market. Since almost everyone in the Netherlands speaks Dutch, it is taken for granted in most circles, so not being able to do so is seen as a big disadvantage.

Delivered through a blended learning approach, Learn2speak Dutch effortlessly combines live lessons with access to Learn2speak Dutch's online academy, guaranteeing practical and learner-centred methodology ultimately helping students to gain confidence and make real progress in everyday life and professional situations. Therefore, Learn2speak Dutch's reputation is more than that of a course provider, it is a lifeline for individuals searching for a personalised coaching experience.

"Rather than focusing only on grammar and theory, we place strong emphasis on communication, confidence-building, and real-life language use. Our goal is not simply for students to 'study Dutch,' but to actually feel comfortable using the language in their everyday lives, workplaces, and social environments."

professional goals in the Netherlands, Learn2speak Dutch's services are a must-have. The company strives to engage with students on a deeper level, going beyond a more conventional language lesson to help shape their understanding of some of the wider factors that will define their life and career in the Netherlands.

Effie enthused: "Our philosophy is not simply to teach students Dutch, but to help them understand how to learn effectively, build confidence, and continue growing independently. This mindset is at the heart of both our teaching approach and our company culture."

Additionally, Effie and her team are committed to learners' development in ways most others may not consider. Effie shared: "Mental wellbeing and emotional support are also very important to us. Relocating to a new country and adapting to a different culture can often be emotionally challenging and isolating.

"For this reason, we regularly collaborate with psychologists and organise group sessions for our students, where they can openly discuss challenges related to integration, stress, confidence, and life as an expat in the Netherlands. We believe that successful integration is not only about learning the language, but also about feeling emotionally supported and connected."

Awarded for its combination of personalised coaching, blended learning, proprietary educational materials, and commitment to supporting both the professional and personal integration of expats, Learn2speak Dutch takes its place in the spotlight within our Benelux Enterprise Awards 2026 with its title of Best Dutch Language Coaching Service for Expats & Professionals 2026.
